

Tues. May 27

My darling,

Thank you for three letters received in last four days and my apologies for being unable to write for the past few days. The reason was that when we returned from Acree last Thursday I had a slight recurrence of sandfly fever and consequently had to have a few days in CRS. However, I am quite O.K. now. I'm afraid that this will, of necessity, be a very short note. Because tomorrow we are going out on a small scheme for a couple of days and tonight I'm on guard so you can see that I have quite a lot of preparing to do. However, I thought I would write and let you know that I was O.K. so you wouldn't get worried. You never need worry, sweetheart, I'll take care of myself - although it's nice to know that you think that much of me.

Sorry, old girl, I just haven't time to write any more. I'll write a long letter when we return. This is hamily short but nevertheless it contains all my love
